

SWADS in June.

At last Summer has arrived, and so has our new logo and new look! We've been working away revamping our building at Milton Road and creating a peaceful and inspiring space, perfect for our new services. We continue to provide Art and Music groups free of charge, and offer one to one, couples and family counselling too. Our multidisciplinary approach means that we get to work with other fantastic services like Swindon Mind and SoundWell, which gives our service users greater choice and a better experience.

Story Circle @ SWADS

Famous authors, not so famous authors and you! Stephen King, Roald Dahl, Irvine Welsh, Neil Gaiman and Alice Munro are all great short story writers; we'll use examples from these authors and others to spark discussion, share opinions and maybe do some writing of our own.

Course starting in July with the wonderful and inspiring Michael Scott.
